From:	(SANTE) <	@ec.europa.eu>
Sent: Thur	rsday, December 20, 2018 4	:25 PM
To:	(SANTE)	@ec.europa.eu>;
(SANTE)	@ec.europa.eu>;	(SANTE)
	@ec.europa.e	eu>; (SANTE)	@ec europa.eu>;
	(SANTE) <	Dec eurona eu>;	(SANTE)
	ည်ec.europa.eu>;	(SANI	E)
<	@ec.europ
Cc	(SANTE) <	@ec.europa.eu>	(SANTE)
	@ec.europa.eu>;	(SANTE)
	⊉ec.europa.eu> ;	(SANTE)
	@ec.europa_eu>;	(SANTE) <	@ec.europa.eu>;
	(SANTE) <	Dec.europa.eu>;	(SANTE)
	Dec.europa.eu>	(SANTE)	@ec.europa.eu
	PEC.europa.eu>	(SANTE)	wec.egropa.eg
Many thai	nks to and w	eeting in subject that took plants
Participan	its:
SANTE: Ar	nne Bucher	,
Estonia: M	1r Toomas Kevvai Deputy Se	cretay General from the Mini	stry of Rural Affairs,
Main elen	nents of the discussion:
OCR - AHL
ASF
431
Rabies

EE mentioned in addition to the points indicated before the meeting new breeding techniques:

 EE underlined that new breeding techniques shall be supported by the EU and that these techniques shall be not considered as GMO unless it is possible to differentiate them.

There was no discussion on GFL and dioxins.

The final briefing is attached for your information.

Kind regards,

European Commission

DG SANTE - Directorate General for Health and Food Safety Unit 0.1 - Strategy and coordination

Tel: +32 2

Dec eurona eu