MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director, Scientific Intelligence

FROM: Deputy Director

1. I discussed the attached memorandums of 12 February 1951, with the Director and he is inclined to feel that this operation falls within the proper scope of our activities in the coordination of intelligence. If satisfactory to you, I suggest therefore that you discuss the matter with the Chief of I & SS, [redacted] and [redacted] as suggested in paragraph 4 of your memorandum, and that in agreement we set up a program and provide for its financing. G

2. When we have done this, I suggest that the matter might be mentioned at an IAC meeting, or confidentially to the senior representatives on the IAC so as to have the assurance of their cooperation and to give them the knowledge that we are coordinating this particular field of intelligence.
