Forwarded herewith is the psychiatrist's report on the ARTICHOKE of [REDACTED]. A full report will follow when the tapes have been transcribed. Although the examination did not produce any significant new information, it did provide confirmation of [REDACTED] story as filled in during the interrogation of recent weeks.

Regarding the third sentence of paragraph 8 of the attachment, the word "interrogator" in this sentence refers to the [REDACTED] interrogator to whom [REDACTED] thought he was talking. The word "interrogator" as used in the rest of paragraph 8 of the attachment refers to the [REDACTED] interrogator. It was evident that [REDACTED], believing that he was talking to the [REDACTED] interrogator, showed an extreme dislike of this person.

It is requested that a copy of the attachment be given to [REDACTED] and a copy to the [REDACTED] medical department.
